The Directorate of the Partito Socialista Italiano (PSI; Italian Socialist Party) has reportedly ordered a thorough investigation of Carlo Matteotti, PSI Deputy, who on various occasions has criticized the policy of the PSI Directorate and specifically the attitude of Pietro Nenni, asserting that the PSI acts as if it were merely a branch of the Partito Comunista Italiano (PCI; Italian Communist Party). Nenni has entrusted to a special commission of Socialists from Modena the task of examining the case of Matteotti and proposing to the PSI Directorate appropriate measures to be taken against Matteotti. The head of the investigating commission is Giusto Tolloy, PSI Deputy, who is reportedly a highly trusted leader of the PCI "transferred" to the PSI.
